

Purely Personal

Hollis Rinehart, of the University of Virginia faculty, accompanied by Mrs. Rinehart, is stopping at the Willard.

John J. Donovan, secretary of the Atlantic Coast Bowling Association, is stopping at National Hotel for a few days, arranging for the accommodation of 250 bowlers, who will stop at that hotel during the tournament, April 8, 9 and 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow and Miss Catherine Harlow are expected to return to the city today after having spent the winter in Bermuda.

William Garth, of Charlottesville, Va.; J. U. Storde, of St. Louis; William Shields, of Philadelphia, and F. J. Pons and E. B. Parsons, of Havana, Cuba, form an advance guard of race horse owners, who will enter their horses in the Bowie meet and who are now stopping at the National Hotel.

Former Governor William Sulzer, of New York, is stopping at the New Willard.

Miss Annie Heneger, of Knoxville, Tenn., is visiting Miss Austin, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Richard Austin, in Twenty-first street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis have returned to Washington after a visit to Atlantic City.

Henry L. Porter, an insurance broker, of Houston, Tex., stopped in the city for a few hours yesterday en route to New York City.

Charles H. Davey has been appointed an assistant physician in the Bureau of Standards.

Ross B. Lennon has received an appointment as an expert clerk in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Elizabeth Kraft, a clerk in the Lighthouse Service, has been promoted.

James A. Toomey is receiving congratulations upon his election as secretary of the Mid-City Citizens' Association.

William H. Bailey, employed in the Bureau of Standards, has been promoted.

Matthew J. Spellacy has received an appointment as a clerk in the Bureau of Navigation.

Rev. Dr. Henry E. Jackson, who is in Washington preparing a series of lectures to be delivered to students in China, and who has defended the public school forums in the District, will preach at Cornell University Sunday on "A Guidebook to Freedom."

William Hollebaugh has returned to the Capital from Annapolis, Md., where he visited his sister, Mrs. S. Reese Abbott.

Miss Annie Aud was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Barbour Hutchinson, of Herndon, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Cline, of Falls Church, Va., recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Butler and Mrs. Wilbur V. Leach, of Washington, at their home.

Thomas N. Fearnow and his grand-daughter, Miss Agnes Dawson, have returned to their home in Berkeley Springs, W. Va., after a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Clara Dawson, who is a patient at a Washington hospital.

Charles B. Tebbas has returned to his home in Washington after a visit with his father, Judge R. H. Tebbas, at Leesburg, Va.

Mrs. Lovell Dodd and son, Harold, of Hedgesville, Md., have returned home after a visit with relatives in Washington.

Mrs. John Curran has been visiting her son, Rev. J. A. Curran, at Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

Mrs. Fred A. Shryock has returned to her home in Winchester, Va., after a visit with friends in this city.

At a meeting last night of the board of editors of the "Tome," the weekly publication of the student body of the Tome School, Port Deposit, Md., Samuel Miller Jr., of Washington, D. C., was elected editor-in-chief. Miller is one of the most prominent students in the school, and is the star pitcher of the baseball team. He had been a member of the "Tome" board for some time.

WILL SING OLD HYMNS AS SUFFRAGISTS LEAVE

Envoys Detailed to Form Woman Voters' Party in West Will Be Given Farewell Celebration.

The Union Station will resound with strains of stirring patriotic music mingled with old-fashioned gospel hymns, when the suffrage envoys leave Washington Sunday afternoon, April 9, for the enfranchised States to form a woman voters' party.

Under direction of Mrs. Sylvia Metcalf, a well-known singer of this city, a large chorus has been mobilized for the good-bye exercises just before the "Suffrage Special" pulls out for the free States.

The program will be given at 5:30 o'clock in the concourse of the station and will include "The Star Spangled Banner," "America," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," "The March of the Women," and "Forward Be Your Watchword."

According to plans announced at headquarters, suffragists expect to fill the concourse with singers and to make the demonstration one of the most impressive ever held in this city.

RAINEY WILL DISCUSS TARIFF BEFORE FORUM

Illinois Representative to Explain Need of Commission in Address on Sunday.

Representative Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, ranking member of the Ways and Means Committee, father of the administration Tariff Commission bill just introduced in the House of Representatives, will be the principal speaker at the open meeting to be held under auspices of the Grover Cleveland Community Forum at the Public Library on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The subject of Mr. Rainey's address and of the discussion of the afternoon will be the Tariff Commission as proposed in the Rainey Bill. Representative Rainey will contrast the commission method with the local and local interest method of handling the tariff, complex, and nationally troublesome problems of the tariff.

A. J. Driscoll, president of the Grover Cleveland Community Forum, will preside. Representative Rainey will remain to answer questions raised in the discussion.

The discovery in an Austrian cemetery of glass mirrors dating from the second or third century upset the theory that the ancients depended upon polished metal to see themselves.

The Town Crier

The Independent Life-Saving Corps will hold its first meeting of the season at 8 o'clock tonight at Dempsey's boathouse. The corps was organized last fall under a charter issued by the Red Cross, and is consecrated to the saving of human life.

Robert Slocum, junior animal husbandman in poultry investigations, Department of Agriculture, will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock at Public Library on "Poultry Breeding." His lecture will cover the experiments in breeding conducted at the government farm for several years besides the general principles of poultry breeding. The public has been invited.

Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts will deliver the second of her series of lectures on "Gesta Christi" tomorrow afternoon at Public Library, under the auspices of the Woman's Interdenominational Missionary Union.

Under the auspices of the local Christian Science Churches, Frank Bell will make his initial appearance in Washington Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Poll's Theater, when he will deliver the first of a series of lectures on "Christian Science."

"Recreation Ideals" will be the topic of the fourth Lenten talk to be held at Rauscher's this morning at 11 o'clock under auspices of the Associated Charities.

A report on the high cost of living in the District will be made by Dr. Frank O'Hara, of the Catholic University of America, at the annual meeting of the Consumers' League Monday night at Rauscher's.

James Barnes will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Through Central Africa" under auspices of the Washington Society of Fine Arts, in the ball room of the New Willard at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

A "30-Carrot" entertainment for the benefit of the Association of Industrial Education in the Mountains of Virginia, will be given at Rauscher's this afternoon and evening.

The Spanish kindergarten classes in Spanish will meet in the Builders' Exchange, 711 Thirtieth street northwest, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Emma Goldman will lecture on "The Right of the Child Not to Be Bored" at the Arcade tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

The Home Club Chorus will hold a rehearsal at the club house at 7:45 o'clock tonight.

The girls' gymnasium exhibition of the Community at Eleventh and Girard streets northwest will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

A meeting of the Second District Republicans will be held in True Reformers' Hall, Twelfth and U streets northwest, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association, 1330 Twelfth street northwest, will hold an election of officers for the ensuing year at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Woman's National Press Association will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, 1401 Girard street northwest, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The installation of officers for the Hebrew Home for the Aged, 415 M street northwest, will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

"The Ideal Music Teacher" will be the subject of an address to be delivered by Dr. Henry E. Jackson, under auspices of the Washington Music Lovers' Club of John Wesley A. M. E. Zion Church at 8 o'clock tonight.

A lecture on "Southern Italy and Sicily" by Mr. Elmerdorf will be given at the National Theater this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The Young People's Socialist League will give a dance tonight in the Perpetual Building.

Spaulding Council, Knights of Columbus, will meet tonight.

The Loyal Daughters' Class of the Fifteenth Christian Church will give an "All Fool and Measuring Social" tomorrow night at the residence of Mrs. Hohn, Twenty-eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Randall Highlands.

E. M. FORD IS INDICTED FOR MURDER OF WIFE

Herman Lee, Colored, Also Charged with Murder—Two Face Indictments for Manslaughter.

Edward M. Ford was indicted by the grand jury yesterday for the first degree murder of his wife, Ella Ford on February 19 at her home in the St. George apartment, Twentieth and L streets northwest. He had taken their little son home after a visit to a moving picture show, say the police, when an argument between the couple arose resulting in the tragedy.

Other indicted yesterday were: Herman Lee, colored, first degree murder; John Merriam and Ernest Madison, manslaughter; Dominick Vito, A. A. Hardy, David Mellard, and John Hassett, violations of postal laws; Charles D. Chase, larceny after trust; Clarence Jackson, grand larceny; Augustus C. Lambath, Edward O'Connor, Joseph W. Hunter and William E. Nolan, housebreaking and larceny; Thomas Ware, assault with dangerous weapon; George Simms, Mack Chambers and Raymond Wilson, housebreaking and larceny; Louis Johnson, grand larceny; William McIntosh and James Sanders, housebreaking and larceny; Frank Mourman, assault with dangerous weapon; Moses J. Henderson, forgery and uttering; James Saunders and William McIntosh, housebreaking and larceny; George P. Hulings, joyriding; Mordecai Harris, assault with dangerous weapon and Raymond Wilson and Mary Anderson, housebreaking and larceny.

TWO SALOON LICENSES GRANTED; TWO REFUSED

Excise Board Acts Upon Applications of Liquor Dealers—Sterling Hotel License Transferred.

Two saloon licenses were granted and two refused by the Excise Board yesterday. Charles Jacobson was granted a transfer of the license of the Sterling Hotel, Thirtieth and E streets northwest, from J. O. Breast, president.

The new application of John Walsh for a license at 1326 Fourteenth street northwest was refused.

The new application of Carl C. Braun for a license at 907 Seventh street northwest was granted.

The application of John J. Daly for a transfer of the license now held by Robert H. Kearney at 901 1-2 E street northwest was refused.

Consumers' League Will Meet. Surgeon Gen. William C. Gorgas and Dr. A. J. McKelway, of the National Child Labor Committee, will be the principal speakers at the fifth annual meeting of the Consumers' League of the District of Columbia at 8 o'clock, Monday evening at Rauscher's. Gen. Gorgas will talk on "The Relation Between Wages and Health," and Dr. McKelway's topic will be "The Curse of Low Wages."

"Here Comes Tootsi"

And other selections from "Around the Map," Medley Fox Trot. One of the Victor Records for April, No. 35528; 12-inch; $1.25.

Men's Spring Clothes

The Styles They Want
The Fabrics They Want
The Prices They Want to Pay
The Fit That Is Right

You are cordially invited to see the new spring clothes we have brought together for you; styles, fabrics, colors, patterns—everything is right. The famous Varsity Fifty-Five Suits and the Varsity Six Hundred Spring Overcoats.

Men and young men who get their clothes here are sure of real distinction in dress.

You will find $25.00 a good price to pay—the extra quality of this price is a big thing.

Main floor—Tenth street entrance.

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES IN MEN'S SPRING WEAR

These are new Spring Selections and while we have many exclusive and new fashions, we call special attention to the very exceptional values featured here.

HANDSOME TIES AT 65c.

Large open-ends and in a good assortment of patterns, made of serviceable silks; rich and desirable colorings. Others from 50c to $2.50.

SHIRTS AT $1.00

Men's Shirts of white and colored madras and fine count percales, in neat and fancy patterns; cuffs attached. The quality is the very best.

MEN'S HOSE AT 25c.

Three grades to select from—cotton, lisle and silk-fiber, in black and the popular plain colors.

Main floor—F st.

MEN'S HOSE AT $1.00.

Pure Silk Hose in black and plain colors with embroidered silk clocks.

PAJAMAS AT $1.00.

White Self-striped Madras Pajamas and Colored Striped Percale Pajamas, finished with silk frogs and pearl buttons.

SHIRTS AND DRAWERS AT 75c EACH.

Spring-weight Gray Merino Shirts with long sleeves, and drawers are full length and reinforced.

BATHROBES AT $3.00 EACH.

Terry Cloth Bathrobes, in very attractive striped patterns and harmonious and effective colorings; absolutely fast.

Third floor—G st.

Store Hours:

Open, 8:30 A. M.
Close, 5:30 P. M.

Advance New Spring Styles in Men's Low Shoes

Already men are seeking the new spring styles in Low Shoes, and we are ready to supply their wants. The spring shoes are distinctive in fashion and very pleasing. The quality is that which you have learned from experience to expect of us in all things.

The best new models in all the different leathers and lasts.

Briefly we describe a few of the spring styles: Black Gun Metal Oxfords, with white rubber soles.

Gun Metal Oxfords, with a neat dark gray cloth top.

Gun Metal Oxfords, with low heels; neat straight lasts, with medium narrow toe; one of the season's favorites.

Tan Russia Calf Oxfords, straight last, with medium narrow toe and low heel; a popular young man's shoe.

Tan Russia Calfskin Oxfords in a rich dark shade, with rubber sole; a very comfortable shoe.

Dark Tan Vici Kidskin Oxfords, with broad toe and low heel, a shoe that fits the foot very softly, and is neat and comfortable, especially for the business man.

These Are Priced at $5.00 Pair.

Main floor—Tenth st.

Women's Correct New Suits
In an Impressive and Extensive Showing

By the constant arrival of new suits the assemblage achieves a degree of newness and interest that is certain to engage the attention of women in a most compelling manner. The collection is unusually replete with models expressing in every line supreme individuality and exclusiveness that has no ally in mediocrity and the commonplace.

Selections made here will be consummated with the knowledge that restrictions are not possible where variety is so great. And those who through precaution or the innate shopping characteristic of women take the time to inspect and examine suits shown elsewhere will conclude that more attractive styles are not to be found, and that our entire collection of suits are priced in such a moderate way that the values are much more interesting than ordinarily found.

The Modish Dress Suits of New Silks and Silk and Cloth Combinations

Suits of these fabrics occupy a position of foremost importance on the fashionable woman's calendar. We are showing a beautiful assortment in an infinite variety of the season's best styles. Included are chiffon taffetas, gros de Londres, soiree, faille, poul de soie and combinations of Poirer twills and taffeta, French serge and satin striped taffeta, velour de Laine and gros de Londres. Rich shades of wistaria, African brown, eggplant, tan, light blue, rose, navy and black. Priced from $45.00 to $100.

Fancy and Plain-Tailored Suits

In all the fashionable materials, faultlessly tailored and finely lined. They consist of gabardines, poplins and men's wear serge in the prevailing colors adaptable to this type of garment. The coats are made flare or belted, rippled and tailored, with new bell-shaped sleeves and fancy-shaped cuffs; the skirts are the newest flare, plaited and gathered models, with detachable belts and fancy yokes and pockets. Priced from $18.75 to $45.00.

The Smart Sports Suits

Sports have become so prominent a part of the activities of women that suits especially for the purpose have a distinct vogue. Conspicuously favored are the suits of heavy and medium-weight Jersey cloth; the belted coats with the large patch pockets and the flare skirts having pockets to match, thus carrying out a jauntiness of mode that is most pleasing. The colors are Joffe blue, tan, purple, forest green and Oxford. Also clever suits of English Tweeds and Homespins for sport and travel wear. Priced from $25.00 to $65.00.

Our Exclusive Army and Navy Tailored Suit

This name has been adopted by us because the material is the famous Army and Navy Serge. There are two styles, one with fitted collar and ripple around hips and full circular skirt on yoke; the other is a plain semi-fitted model coat with button trimming on back and sleeves; skirts in full-flare style. Shown in navy blue and black; sizes from 34 to 46. The price is $35.00.

Mourning Suits

A complete spring showing is now ready, and will surely meet with the approval of all in need of mourning apparel. The materials are new and well suited to this class of garment, and many are trimmed with dull faille and poul de soie silks on collar and cuffs, and others show touches of hand-embroidery or are simply plain tailored. Priced from $35.00 to $95.00.

Ultra Fashionable Suits For Stout Women

We offer to the women of extra size suits that are certainly the most ultra stylish and becoming. They are not merely large-size suits, but garments that are up-to-the-minute in style and made to fit and accentuate the most becoming lines of the figure. A complete assortment is offered, thus providing for the woman that is large the same excellent range of models and fabrics that the woman of regular size possesses. Sizes 41 to 51 for the average large size, and 40½ to 52½ for the long or short-waisted figure. Prices range from $25.00 to $50.00.

Third floor—G st.

Women's Afternoon Frocks
Unusually Low in Price at $29.50

A new assortment of Frocks, suitable for street or afternoon wear, made of

Georgette Crepe, Combinations, Taffetas, and Crepe de Chine

In many new effects combining the striped and plain taffeta, New Russian Coat styles and others of the latest origin. There are dainty styles for afternoon wear, with touches of colored hand-embroidery, etc., and dainty lace or Georgette crepe collars.

All Have Full Skirts and Some with Pointed or Straight Overskirts—Very Special Price, $29.50

Third floor—G st.

The Fine New Footwear for Women

Is typical of the modes for summer, and reveals a beauty of material and designing that has never been in evidence before.

The fashion for Fancy Footwear continues to be the all-important theme of the spring and summer styles. The materials employed are soft, flexible and exquisite in texture and appearance. They are distinctly different from those used during the winter.

Plain color and color combinations that are the acme of daintiness and feminine charm, and that add immeasurably to the elegance of the costume ensemble; novel trimmings on many models.

The designs are a delight in grace and style of a character that has never been surpassed; the well-shaped and molded form they give to the foot and ankles of the wearer show improvement of a high order.

Our assortments clearly define every new style, both high and low, a number of which are ours exclusively. They are undoubtedly the finest ever produced, and show a more studied development and harmonious accord with garment fashions than ever before.

But women must not get the impression that our entire stock and efforts are devoted to the supplying of exclusive and novel-style footwear. For side by side with these models are the more conservative and the very practical shoes, slippers and pumps, worn year after year by those who demand quality footwear of a certain model and character that guarantee neatness and comfort.

Our shoes are made from the choicest materials, including the heavy leathers, the very delicate kidskins, and the stylish fabrics; colors and black, singly or in combination.

The showing embraces Euclid Slippers, Sierra Pumps, Alta Pumps, Cascade Slippers, Sylvan Slippers, Marbridge Pumps, Devereux Pumps, Spat Pumps, York Pumps, Clifton Pumps, Colonial Pumps, One-eyelot Pumps, Wellesley Pumps, English Pumps, English Oxfords, Blucher Oxfords and Straight-lace Oxfords.

Priced from $3.50 to $9.00 the pair.

Third floor—Tenth st.